

Workshop creation

FOR STUDENTS

Introduction to the activity: exploring illustrations on the internet

Learning objectives: after completing this worksheet, you will be able to learn about illustrations, find them online, and create your own!

Duration of the activity:

4 hours

Short description of the activity:

In this interactive workshop, you will not only find inspiring illustrations but also unleash your artistic talents. Through sharing and reflection, you will gain some information about storytelling with illustrations. Through engaging activities and hands-on exploration, you will discover how to search for captivating images using platforms like Unsplash and Wikimedia Commons. You'll also learn about the importance of copyright and the public domain.

Resources:

<https://unsplash.com/>

Wikimedia Commons

Question template

Instruction and description of the activity, step by step:

Step 1: Understanding Copyright

1. What do you think "copyright" means? Write your best guess:

2. Why is it important to give credit to the creators of illustrations? Write your answer:

3. Can you think of something that is "public domain"? (Hint: It's something anyone can use freely.)

Step 2: Finding Illustrations Online

Today, you'll learn to find pictures on the internet. Let's start with a fun topic: ships and boats! Use the computer to find pictures. If you're not sure how, ask your teacher or a friend for help.

Now, try searching for pictures of flowers and trees. Find one you like and describe it. Show your illustration to your classmates. Explain what you found and why.

